Letter to Parents: 68/2023

Through the Principal

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Letter to Parents/Guardians of Primary One Cohort (2024)

On behalf of our staff, we welcome all of you to Northland Primary School. To better prepare your child for school next year, we have the following administrative information to share with you.

- a. Communication channel: MOE and schools have established a common channel of communication with our school stakeholders. It is done via the use of Parents' Gateway (PG). Administrative and operational matters with regards to student management matters will be sent via PG to parents/guardians for information and necessary actions. Details on its operations will be disseminated to all parents /guardians by early October.
- b. Procurement of books, uniform, school-based student care & school bus services: Online services will be available and officially commence from 13 October 2023. The following links or email address for each service as follows for your easy reference.
